

(Mark 9:17-24) A man in the crowd answered, "Teacher, I brought You my son, who is possessed by a spirit that has robbed him of speech. Whenever it seizes him, it throws him to the ground. He foams at the mouth, gnashes his teeth and becomes rigid. I asked Your disciples to drive out the spirit, but they could not." "O unbelieving generation," Jesus replied, "how long shall I stay with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring the boy to Me." So they brought him. When the spirit saw Jesus, it immediately threw the boy into a convulsion. He fell to the ground and rolled around, foaming at the mouth. Jesus asked the boy's father, "How long has he been like this?" "From childhood," he answered. "It has often thrown him into fire or water to kill him. But if You can do anything, take pity on us and help us." "'If You can?'" said Jesus. "Everything is possible for him who believes." Immediately the boy's father exclaimed, "I do believe; help me overcome my unbelief!"

Lessons in Faith

(Hebrews 11:1-2) Now faith is being sure of what we hope for and certain of what we do not see. This is what the ancients were commended for.

1. Abel's lesson: _____.

(Hebrews 11:4) By faith Abel offered God a better sacrifice than Cain did. By faith he was commended as a righteous man, when God spoke well of his offerings. And by faith he still speaks, even though he is dead.

(Genesis 4:3-4) In the course of time Cain brought some of the fruits of the soil as an offering to the LORD. But Abel brought fat portions from some of the firstborn of his flock. The LORD looked with favor on Abel and his offering.

2. Enoch's lesson: _____.

(Hebrews 11:5) By faith Enoch was taken from this life, so that he did not experience death; he could not be found, because God had taken him away. For before he was taken, he was commended as one who pleased God.

(Genesis 5:24) Enoch walked with God; then he was no more, because God took him away.

3. Noah's lesson: _____.

(Hebrews 11:7) By faith Noah, when warned about things not yet seen, in holy fear built an ark to save his family.

(James 2:22) You see that his faith and his actions were working together, and his faith was made complete by what he did.

4. Abraham's lesson: _____.

(Hebrews 6:15) And so after waiting patiently, Abraham received what was promised.

(Hebrews 10:37-38) For in just a very little while, He who is coming will come and will not delay. But my righteous one will live by faith. And if he shrinks back, I will not be pleased with him.

5. Moses' lesson: _____.

(Hebrews 11:24-27) By faith Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be known as the son of Pharaoh's daughter. He chose to be mistreated along with the people of God rather than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a short time... By faith he left Egypt, not fearing the king's anger; he persevered because he saw Him who is invisible.

(2 Corinthians 5:7) We live by faith, not by sight.

6. Joshua's lesson: _____.

(Hebrews 11:30) By faith the walls of Jericho fell, after the people had marched around them for seven days.

(Philippians 4:6) Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God.

7. Final lesson: _____.

(Hebrews 11:39-40) These were all commended for their faith, yet none of them received what had been promised. God had planned something better...

(Isaiah 55:8-9 TLB) This plan of Mine is not what you would work out, neither are My thoughts the same as yours! For just as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than yours, and My thoughts than yours.

(Mark 9:17-24) A man in the crowd answered, "Teacher, I brought You my son, who is possessed by a spirit that has robbed him of speech. Whenever it seizes him, it throws him to the ground. He foams at the mouth, gnashes his teeth and becomes rigid. I asked Your disciples to drive out the spirit, but they could not." Lessons in Faith

(Hebrews 11:1-2) Now faith is being sure of what we hope for and certain of what we do not see. This is what the ancients were commended for.

1. Abel's lesson: Put God first.

(Hebrews 11:4) By faith Abel offered God a better sacrifice than Cain did. By faith he was commended as a righteous man, when God spoke well of his offerings. And by faith he still speaks, even though he is dead.

(Genesis 4:3-4) In the course of time Cain brought some of the fruits of the soil as an offering to the LORD. But Abel brought fat portions from some of the firstborn of his flock. The LORD looked with favor on Abel and his offering.

2. Enoch's lesson: Walk with God.

(Hebrews 11:5) By faith Enoch was taken from this life, so that he did not experience death; he could not be found, because God had taken him away. For before he was taken, he was commended as one who pleased God.

(Genesis 5:24) Enoch walked with God; then he was no more, because God took him away.

3. Noah's lesson: Act on God's Word.

(Hebrews 11:7) By faith Noah, when warned about things not yet seen, in holy fear built an ark to save his family.

(James 2:22) You see that his faith and his actions were working together, and his faith was made complete by what he did.

4. Abraham's lesson: Wait patiently.

(Hebrews 6:15) And so after waiting patiently, Abraham received what was promised.

(Hebrews 10:37-38) For in just a very little while, He who is coming will come and will not delay. But my righteous one will live by faith. And if he shrinks back, I will not be pleased with him.

5. Moses' lesson: Don't trust your feelings.

(Hebrews 11:24-27) By faith Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be known as the son of Pharaoh's daughter. He chose to be mistreated along with the people of God rather than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a short time... By faith he left Egypt, not fearing the king's anger; he persevered because he saw Him who is invisible.

(2 Corinthians 5:7) We live by faith, not by sight.

6. Joshua's lesson: Thank God in advance.

(Hebrews 11:30) By faith the walls of Jericho fell, after the people had marched around them for seven days.

(Philippians 4:6) Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God.

7. Final lesson: God always does the right thing.

(Hebrews 11:39-40) These were all commended for their faith, yet none of them received what had been promised. God had planned something better...

(Isaiah 55:8-9 TLB) This plan of Mine is not what you would work out, neither are My thoughts the same as yours! For just as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than yours, and My thoughts than yours.
